

SECRET

AIR

NOX-X-1031

Chief of Station, Karlsruhe

10 May 1949

Chief, Foreign Branch "X"

Attn: []

HEUSINGER, Adolf, Lt. Gen.

Reference: NOX-A-870, No. 4

The following information on subject has been extracted from a German dossier of the Reichswehrministerium, Heeresleitung, Personalamt.

Date and

Place of Birth: 4 August 1897 at Holzminde/Geeser, Braunschweig

Religion : Evangelical Church

Marital Status: 23 September 1931 to Gerda, nee Krueger

Children : Two daughters: Ruth, born 21 July '32 and Ada, 1 June '39

Peacetime

Position : General Staff - Infantry

Address : Walkenried/Suedharz

War Position : General Staff - from 25 March 1945 was chief of the army survey and maps department.

Father : Ludwig, Gymnasialdirektor, died 27 October 1924

Mother : Charlotte, nee von Alten, died 13 April 1913

World War I : Subject was in the field as a lieutenant and became a prisoner of the English in 1917.

Between Wars : A staff officer in various units.

Character : (Two ratings by HALDER are available.)

"Inexorably clear, fertile in ideas, spirited and yet painfully exact - a chief of operations, as he should be.

~~SECRET~~

Character
Cont'd

: Enjoys trust and respect among the troops and in the General Staff. His ideals and his warm-hearted humanity allow his subordinates to place in him unconditional respect and trust."

"Carries out his duties in the best possible way."

At Present
(Note)

: Since December 1946 HEUSINGER has been deputy chief of the group which is preparing an organizational study of the OKH for the War Department.

After July 1947 he is to continue with his work and also is to be the senior adviser to the director of the entire historical project at Allendorf.

[]

~~SECRET~~